A Brief History of the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

COMPILED (FROM A DRAFT OF THE LATE J. HARVEY WILSON, ESQ., AND FROM THE CHURCH RECORDS) AT THE REQUEST OF THE SESSION, AND APPROVED BY IT JANUARY 18, 1888.

---

1. The property now owned by the Trustees (viz., the square,) was donated by the Commissioners of the town of Charlotte to the citizens thereof, for the purpose of being improved by them to give accommodation for religious services to all denominations, the title thereto being retained by said Commissioners.

The population of the town at that time was quite small, not exceeding three hundred (300) in number. There was no church of any denomination in the place.

In pursuance of the license thus given by the Commissioners, the citizens of the town undertook the erection of a church building of brick, on said square. The principal contributors thereto were Presbyterians, consisting mainly of Captain Wm. Davidson, John Irwin, William Smith, William Carson, and a few others.

When the improvement was completed, it was ascertained that a debt had been incurred to the extent of fifteen hundred dollars. This indebtedness was discharged by a loan of money obtained from an agency of the Bank of Newberne which had been established in said town, of which Captain Wm. Davidson was the chief officer.

To raise the money to pay the indebtedness, the Commissioners of the town were induced to make a corporate note for the amount, which was negotiated in said bank.

This application was made and granted upon the ground that the title to the property thus improved was retained by the corporate authorities. This debt was carried by the bank until about the year 1832, about which time the charter of the bank expired. This debt, at that day, was regarded as quite "an incubus" upon the town.

When the payment became a necessity, Mr. John Irwin, who was desirous of securing the property for the Presbyterians of the town, proposed to the Board of Commissioners, that if they would convey the property to him, he would advance the money and pay off the debt. This proposal was readily acceded to by the corporate authorities, and a deed accordingly was made to him for the property. In a short time after this transaction, Mr. Irwin took up a subscription among the Presbyterians of the place, and raised the money for his reimbursement, he being a liberal subscriber to that end. He subsequently conveyed the property to the Trustees of the Church. This transaction on the part of Mr. Irwin was strictly consistent with fairness and propriety, for the reason that the property had been improved mainly by Presbyterian money. The congregation should always bear in mind the debt of gratitude it owes to Mr. John Irwin, for his liberality and activity in securing the property for the Presbyterian Church.

2. The Dedication Sermon was preached in August, 1823, by The Rev. Dr. McCree, Pastor of Centre Church, Iredell County. In a fervent strain, he prayed: "We invoke Thy Blessing, O Lord! upon the Christian people who have erected this beautiful temple, which we now dedicate to Thy service. We pray Thee to accept it as their offering. Let Thy blessing ever rest upon it, from the stone which sleeps at its foundation to the gilded ball which blazes upon the pinnacle of its spire!"

3. The congregation was first supplied by the Rev. Samuel Caldwell, Pastor of Sugar Creek Church, one fourth of his time, until his death in 1826.

4. The little band next enjoyed, once in three weeks, the ministry of The Rev. R. H. Morrison, Pastor of Sugar Creek Church.

5. In this venerable motherchurch, their membership was held, until the 4th Sabbath of August, 1832, when the Charlotte Church was organized by the Rev. Dr. Morrison, with 36 members, and Messrs. David Parks and Nathan B. Carroll, Ruling Elders.

6. In January, 1833, the Rev. A. J. Leavenworth became stated supply, and on Saturday, May 3, 1834, was installed the first Pastor; Dr. Morrison preaching the sermon, and Dr. John Robinson (of famous memory) giving the charges. Mr. Leavenworth's pastorate, during which 58 additions were made to the Church, continued to the close of 1838, when a vacancy occurred.

7. The church was next supplied for some months, each, first by The Rev. Thos. Owen, then by the Rev. John M. M. Caldwell, then by the Rev. Harper Caldwell.

8. The Rev. J. F. W. Freeman became stated supply in 1842, and so continued to the close of 1845. Additions during his term, 31.

9. The Rev. Cyrus Johnston was installed Pastor, May 23, 1846. His useful and honoured career was cut short by a sudden death, January 25, 1855. During Dr. Johnston's pastorate of 8 years and 8 months there were 118 additions to the Church.

10. The Rev. A. W. Miller, of South Carolina, succeeded as pastor, in June, 1855, and continued till April, 1857. During the second year of his pastorate, the work of erecting a new church (the present edifice) on the site of the old, was commenced, and completed in 1857. In the interval, the congregation worshipped in the Court House.

In 1856, a call from the Tabb St. Church, Petersburg, Va., was received by the Pastor, but the Church declined to unite in the request for the dissolution of the pastoral relation. The Session said: "By acceding to this request, we would be doing violence to the feelings and views of the Church, whose organ we are, as recently expressed by them in a congregational capacity, at which they declared, with entire unanimity, that this pastoral relation is, to them, in the highest degree satisfactory."

In 1857, this call was renewed, and accepted by the Pastor.

11. The Rev. Alexander Sinclair succeeded as Pastor in November, 1857, and continued (interrupted by feeble health for a season, when the pulpit was supplied by The Rev. Dr. J. L. Kirkpatrick, President of Davidson College) to the close of 1864. During his pastorate of 7 years, there were 122 additions to the church.

12. After the war, The Rev. Dr. A. W. Miller was recalled from Petersburg to Charlotte, and became Pastor, the second time, October 15, 1865. During his second Pastorate up to the present time, January 18, 1888, there have been 592 additions to the Church. Contributions, to all objects during the last 18 years, $128,500.

13. In the year 1876, a comfortable Manse was built for the Pastor and his Family.

13. Owing to the growth of Presbyterianism in the city the Second Presbyterian Church was organized October 22, 1873. This enterprise was liberally aided by the First Presbyterian Church, whose Pastor was the first to advocate it in Charlotte.

Extract From "The Report on Sessional Duties,"

MADE, EVERY YEAR, TO THE PRESBYTERY OF MECKLENBURG BY THE SESSIONS OF ITS CHURCHES.

---

Have Church-members, who, after suitable instruction, neglect or refuse to honour the Lord with their substance, been disciplined?

Are Elders and Deacons elect, suitably instructed by the Minister in the duties of their office and ordained only when the session is persuaded that they possess the qualifications required by the word of God.

Are Elders faithful in visiting the flock?

Is the session faithful in efforts to recover wandering members, and exercising discipline upon offenders?

Does the session require of church-members, and of applicants for membership, as a term of communion, to abstain from those forms of amusement—dances, theatrical exhibitions &c.,— which are forbidden in the standards of our Church, and does it discourage the dance, in all its forms, as tending to evil?

Does the session oppose the raising of money for ecclesiastickal purposes on the part of the Church, as a Church, by means of Fairs, Rafflings, Festivals, and such-like expedients, or in any other way than as evidence of the Christian Grace of giving?

Do the Deacons make regular reports to the session, and does the session take cognizance of their fidelity, and the the lack of it?
